Dear Family,

The Activities Subcommittee has met for the last 2 wks. after the 6:00 Sun. meeting at St. Joseph Church.

We have a date set for the KRCNA 24 fundraiser as Dec. 5. The first Sat. in Dec. It will be held at the First Christian Church on State St. where HIF regularly meets. We are paying the Church $50 for their facility and we have the Church from 5:00 - midnight. Set up will start at 5:00 and the function will start at 6:00 w/ a speaker at 7:00 or 7:30 and an auction and dance to follow.

Fee has accepted our offer to D.J. at a cost of $175.

We are asking the homegroups to donate a pot of chili for a homegroup chili cookoff.

We have decided to ask for $5 at the door w/ food/dance being included in the price. Drinks will be sold. There will be an NA auction, 50/50 raffle, NA jail and ~~Dance~~ Dance as usual. We are trying to purchase 2 hoodies to auction and raffle off as well.

We are now in the process of checking out our possibilities for a speaker. Our next meeting will be this Wed. at the same time.

In Loving Service,

Stephene

P.S. I have a flyer to take to the regions

First I would like to apologize for my outburst at the last area. I allow personalities to come before principles and I'm trying to act differently today. Again I am truly sorry. 11/1/09

H&I

Dear family-

Things are doing well with H&I. Our meetings are being made by panel members with literature and meeting schedules.

Debra M. has expressed interest in becoming the new women's panel leader. So we are working getting her comfortable going in. She has completed her 9 times "W" with observing. I am very grateful for her willingness.

We are working on arranging a new commitment that we are excited about and interest has been expressed in presenting Arason Co Jaul's Women with a meeting. We want to discuss this with PI on drafting something to present to the Jauler there.

Finally, my term as H&I Chair is up in December and I would like to express my willingness to continue on with one more term. Things are starting to grow again with H&I and I'm happy to keep the momentum going.

Our next meeting will be Dec 5th at 4:30.

In Loving Service
Kim H.
